DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-11 and 32 drawn to a method for analyzing biochemical pathways comprising the steps of detecting modification of the immobilized biomolecules.
- II. Claims 12-22 and 32 drawn to a method for analyzing biochemical pathways comprising the steps of detecting modification of the biomolecules in solution.
- III. Claims 23-31 and 32 drawn to a method for analyzing biochemical pathways comprising the steps of detecting the binding of biomolecules in solution to the immobilized molecules.

Inventions I, II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions of the claimed methods comprise distinct method steps, conditions of detecting and/or results that do not define a contribution which each of the claimed methods, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, and the search required for Group I is not required for Groups II-III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

A. Additional steps:

1. Detecting the presence of at least one biomolecule in solution.
2. Identifying the function of at least one biomolecule in solution.
3. Quantifying the amount of the biomolecule.
4. Qualitatively and/or quantitatively determining the level of biomolecules.
5. Detecting the presence of at least one immobilized biomolecule.
6. Identifying the function of at least one immobilized biomolecule.

Art Unit: 1639

7. Quantifying the amount of the immobilized biomolecules.

Each of these process steps is different in that determining the function of a biomolecule or an immobilized biomolecule require different conditions from that of the qualitative and quantitative determinations of each of the different biomolecules.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1, for example, is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
